

FACT FINDING HUNT

THE STORY OF COCOA

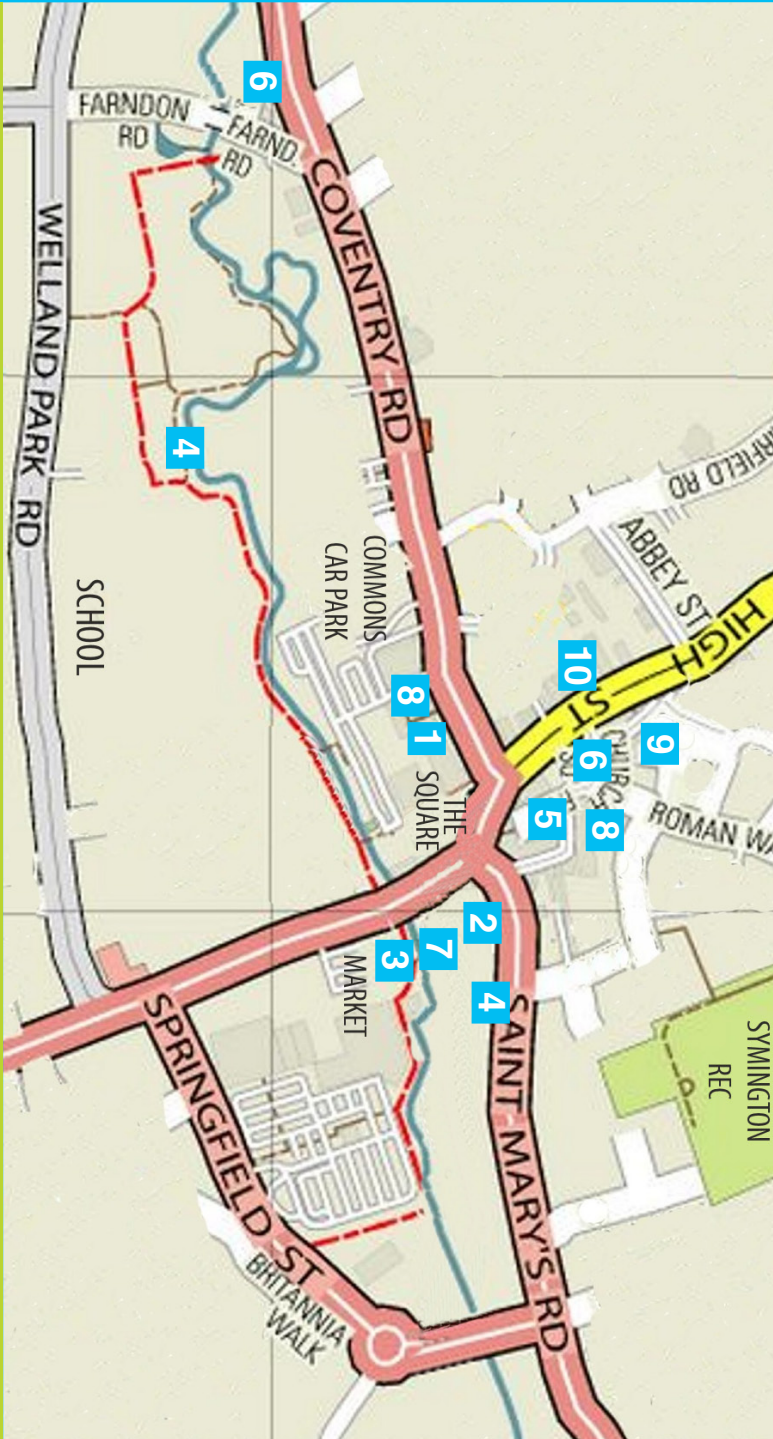

FAIRTRADE

Free activity for children and families! Follow the story trail in shops in and around Market Harborough town centre. Answer 9 questions to earn a reward.

THE STORY OF COCOA
starts at the THE GROWING TREE in Manor Walk where you can collect your quiz/trail sheet – or download from fairtrademarketharborough.org.uk

The hunt runs from Tuesday February 18th until Saturday February 22nd

There are 9 parts to the story and 9 questions to answer! Note that some answers can be found at more than one shop. When you have 9 answers, take your leaflet to the Oxfam Shop in the High Street for checking and to see if you have a reward.

- 1 The Growing Tree, Manor Walk
- 2 Holland & Barrett, St Mary's Place
- 3 Classic Crepes, Market Hall
- 4 Louisa's Place, St Mary's Rd / Café in the Park
- 5 The Grape Tree, The Square
- 6 Nature's Pantry, Church Street / Spar, Coventry Road
- 7 Greggs, St Mary's Place
- 8 Insomnia, Adam & Eve St / New Horizons Café, Manor Walk
- 9 Lavender Blue, Church Street
- 10 Oxfam main shop, High Street

QUESTIONS RELATING TO 'THE STORY OF COCOA'

For the answer to Q1, look for shop 1 on the map on the back – and so on until you've collected all 9. Then head to 10 to collect your reward.

Q1 Where do cocoa pods grow?

Q2 Where would you find the cocoa beans?

Q3 How many cocoa beans are there in each pod?

Q4 The cocoa beans have to dry out.
How do the farmers dry the beans?

Q5 The cocoa beans are put into _____
They are then shipped to _____ Eventually they will be made into _____
(Can you fill in the missing words?)

Q6 The price of cocoa goes up and down. This causes problems for the farmer.
Name one of the other problems the cocoa farmers have to face?

Q7 What does a cocoa farmer not have any control over?

Q8 Where is 90% of the world's cocoa grown?
Which organisation helps the farmers to get a fair price for their cocoa?

Q9 Rosine is a cocoa farmer in Africa. She belongs to a Fairtrade co-operative.
How has the Fairtrade co-operative helped the children there?
